Tranſlation of the King of PRUSSIA's Act of Acceptation of His Britannick Majeſty's Act of Guaranty of the Dutchy of Sileſia and County of Glatz.

WE FREDERICK, by the Grace of God, King of Pruſſia, Margrave of Brandenburg, Arch-Chamberlain and Prince Elector of the Holy Roman Empire, &c. Make known to all and every one who theſe preſents ſhall ſee, That his Britannick Majeſty having given to Us, for the peaceable poſſeſſion of the Territories, which have been yielded to Us by her Majeſty the Empreſs, Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, by Virtue of the preliminary Articles of Breſlau, and of the definitive Treaty of Berlin, confirmed by that of Dreſden, the Act of Guaranty, of which the Tenor follows.

WE, GEORGE II. by the Grace of God, King of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, Duke of Brunſwick and Lunenburgh, Arch-Treaſurer and Prince Elector of the Holy Roman Empire, &c. make known to all and every one, to whom theſe Preſents ſhall come; that as by the Preliminary Articles ſigned at Breſlau the 11th of June 1742, between her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, now Empreſs of Germany, and his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia, her ſaid Imperial Majeſty ceded in perpetuity to the ſaid King of Pruſſia, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Dutchy of Sileſia and the County of Glatz; and whereas the ſaid Ceſſion was fully renew'd, confirm'd and ratify'd in favour of the ſaid King, by the Definitive Treaty of Peace between the ſame High Powers, concluded and ſigned at Breſlau, the 28th of July the ſame Year; of the which Preliminary Articles and Treaty we guaranteed the Execution to their ſaid Majeſties by Authentick Act, ſigned with our Hand, and ſealed with our Great Seal of Great-Britain, the Firſt at our Palace of Kenſington, the 24th of June 1742, and the Second by the Treaty of Alliance at Weſtminſter, ſigned November 18th, 1742. But freſh Miſunderſtandings and an open War unhappily breaking out between her ſaid Imperial Majeſty and his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia, we engaged ourſelves, in order to induce his ſaid Majeſty the King of Pruſſia the more readily to come to a Pacification with her Imperial Majeſty, by a Convention ſigned Auguſt 26, 1745, at Hanover, and by our Pacification of the ſame, to renew to his Majeſty our Guarantee, both of the Dutchy of Sileſia and County of Glatz; and as after this, in Conſequence of our Mediation, Peace was happily concluded, and the ancient Friendſhip re-eſtabliſhed between their ſaid Majeſties, by the Treaty of Dreſden of the 25th of December laſt, in which the Renewal of the above-mention'd Ceſſions by the Empreſs, and the reciprocal Guarantees therein contained, were underſtood to be included.

And his Pruſſian Majeſty having required and moſt earneſtly beſought us now to fulfil the Engagement aforeſaid of the Hanover Convention, in renewing the Guarantee, which we before granted him of the Dutchy of Sileſia and the County of Glatz: whe have been willing to acquieſce therein, to conſolidate, as much as lies in our power, the Pacification ſo happily concluded, and to give our ſaid good Brother the King of Pruſſia, a new proof of our ſincere and invariable Friendſhip. We do therefore by theſe Preſents, renew, confirm, and ratify afreſh to his ſaid Pruſſian Majeſty, our Gaurantee of the Dutchy of Sileſia and the County of Glatz, promiſing and obliging ourſelves, for us, our Heirs, and Succeſſors, to the Crown of Great Britain, as well for the preſent as for the Time to come, to ſend our Aid and empoly efficaciouſly all the Means in our Power, to preſerve his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the quiet and peaceable poſſeſſion of Sileſia and the County of Glatz, and to maintain them againſt all thoſe who would diſturb them therein in any Manner whatſoever. We will moreover labour inceſſantly with the Lords the States General of the United Provinces, and make to them the ſtrongeſt Inſtances, to engage them to take on themſelves the ſame Guarantee in Favour of his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia, and to give and deliver to him a like Act. In Witneſs whereof, we have ſigned this Act with our Royal Hand, and put thereto our Great Seal of Great Britain.

Kenſington, Sept. 19, (30, N. S.) A. D. 1746, and of our Reign the 20th. GEORGE R.

We accept with Gratitude the above Act of Guaranty and promiſe reciprocally upon our Royal Word, for Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, to fulfil faithfully the Guaranty, which we have given to her Majeſty, the Empreſs

Empreſs Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, by Virtue of the Treaty of Peace, Friendſhip and Reconciliation, concluded at Dreſden the 25th of December laſt, with her ſaid Majeſty, for her Dominions ſituate in Germany, in caſe of their being attack'd, and to fulfil with the ſame Fidelity the Treaties of Friendſhip, mutual Defence, and Guaranty, contracted with his Britannick Majeſty, as well in Quality of King of Great-Britain, as of Elector of Brunſwick and Lunenburg, and eſpecially that of Weſtminſter of the Year 1742; upon Condition however, that her Majeſty the Empreſs, Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, and his Britannick Majeſty, (each for what concerns them, and in ſuch manner, that the Failure of the one ſhall not be imputed to the other) do likewiſe faithfully execute on their part the Engagements which they have enter'd into with Us, and particularly the Guaranty of our poſſeſſions, which they have heretofore given Us; and that they do fulfil and make good the ſame to Us, as often as we ſhall have Occaſion to claim them. We promiſe, likewiſe, upon our Royal Word, for Us, our Heirs and Succeſſors, to execute punctually and immediately the Ninth Article of the ſaid Treaty of Berlin, by which we have charged ourſelves with the payment of the Sums of Money due to the Subjects of Great Britain upon the Mortgage of Sileſia.

In Witneſs whereof we have ſigned this preſent Act of Acceptation, and have cauſed to be ſet thereto our Royal Seal.

Directions to the French King's PAINTER.

PAINTER, diſplay, in honour of the ſtate,
A monarch only in appearance great:
Swoln with ambition, let the tyrant ſtand,
With Pride and Treach'ry plac'd on either hand:
In ſcraps let broken treaties ſtrew the ground,
Here Vice exulting, and there Juſtice bound:
Fill his throng'd levee with a wretched crowd,
Mean ſneaking ſlaves, of fancied bleſſings proud,
A dull, tame race whom nothing can provoke,
Fond of the chains that bind them to the yoke.
Stript by his laws preſent the country bare,
And ruin'd commerce ſinking in deſpair.
To his vaſt projects a Mauſoleum raiſe,
On Europe's ruins, to record his praiſe.
And laſt—examples of too eaſy truſt,
Paint Genoa, Spain, Bavaria in the duſt.
Yet hold—the work demands one height'ning more
Let all with fire and blood be ſprinkled o'er;
And write beneath, in gold, diſtinct and plain,
Theſe are the Symbols, LEWIS, of thy Reign.

An EPITAPH on a VICE-A———L lately dead of the Gout.

PAſs o'er this grave without concern,
Here lies old vice from head to ſtern;
Averſe to ſtrike a blow in fight:
Inaction was his chief delight.
He quiet lies, as off Toulon,
Pacifick ſon of old Neptune.
Death ſtruck his flag and laid him by,
As hulks in docks and harbours lie.
Unfit for ſea, with Britiſh fleet
To ſecond heroes, fight and beat;
Heroick only in a ſafe retreat.
Tho' men of valour merit fame,
Leſs ſtock of merit has no claim.
No wonder ſuch in battle flinch;
Can gouty cripples ſtir an inch?
Let none lament this Tar defunct,
But France and Boca Chica punk.
